Dear SABA-DC Family,

Welcome to June! We've got lots of important updates for you.

First, the D.C. Bar Election ends tomorrow, June 4. SABA-DC has endorsed the following individuals for leadership roles in the DC Bar. We believe their demonstrated leadership experience, appreciation for the role of voluntary bar associations, and commitment to transparency will serve the DC Bar well. Voting closes tomorrow. To cast your vote, please visit here. This is a low-turnout election, so every vote counts.***

1. Diane Seltzer for President-elect
2. Kandis Gibson for Board of Governors
3. Karen Newton Cole for Board of Governors

Second, registration for the SABA North American Conference (which will be in Denver from June 19-21) closes Friday, June 6. To register, please visit this link.

Third, SABA-DC will be hosting a pre-SABA-NA Conference meet-up in DC on Wednesday, June 11, from 6-8 pm at Wunder Garten (1101 First Street NE). Please register here. Come meet other SABA-DC members who are attending the conference so that you can find a conference buddy (& reconnect with existing ones) before Denver!

Fourth, please join SABA-DC, Capital Area Muslim Bar Association (CAMBA), and the American Bar Association (ABA) for an in-person event (Know Your Rights: Protecting Yourself and Your Community from ICE), which will be held Thursday, June 12, at Nosamman LLP (1401 New York Ave NW, Ste 800) from 6-8 pm. This event, featuring attorneys representing Abrego Garcia, Dr. Bader Khan Suri, and Rumeysa Ozturk, is intended to provide information on immigration rights, shifting immigration policies, and other issues. If interested, please register here (with SABA-DC) and with CAMBA here (as well).

Lastly (but not least), please save the date for SABA-DC's 17th Annual SABA-DC Public Interest Benefit Gala on Saturday, October 18, at the Smithsonian National Postal Museum (2 Mass. Ave NE). We will share more gala details in upcoming newsletters.

Best regards,

SABA-DC Board of Directors
